President's Message

November! Dark and stormy nights are coming. It's a perfect time to spend time at our sewing machines. I've started a new project and hope to finish it before our next guild meeting. Once I finish that one it may inspire me to finish off my pile of UFOs. There are so many!

It's also an exciting time of year as we prepare for Christmas. It will be a busy time, but I look forward to many traditional activities.

See you at the meeting.

'White Rock Retreat ~ October 12-16, 2023

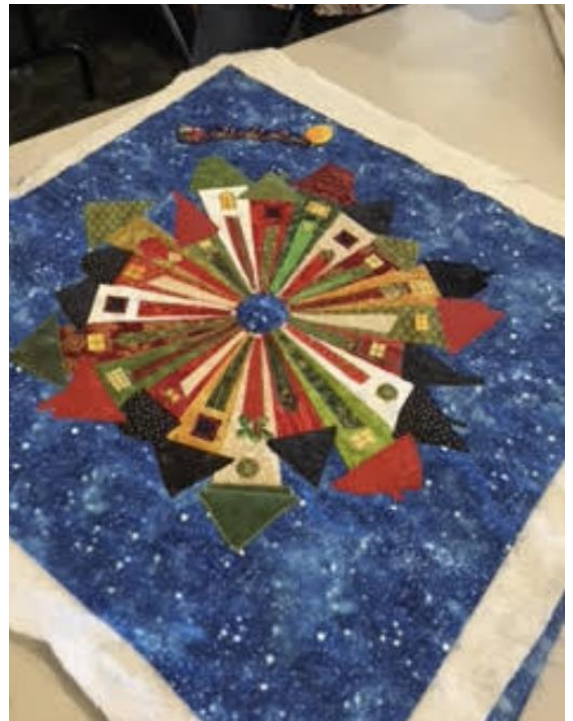

A beautiful drive to White Rock.. bright sunshine was enjoyed by~ Catriona, Lori, Mona, Joy, Susan, Dorie, Bena, Margo, Terri, Shelly & myself.

Lovely dinner at Italian Restaurant just up from the Hotel was enjoyed by all of us.
No one was required to cook or wash dishes.. perfect evening.

Busy sounds of machines working in the comfortable roomy conference room we had to ourselves for the four and a half days.

Uninterrupted days creating.. sharing ideas.. helping each other with tips and suggestions.

Restaurant about 10 steps away with great service and food.
Attached kitchen with microwave and fridge for our use so we were never short of tea or coffee for breaks in the day.

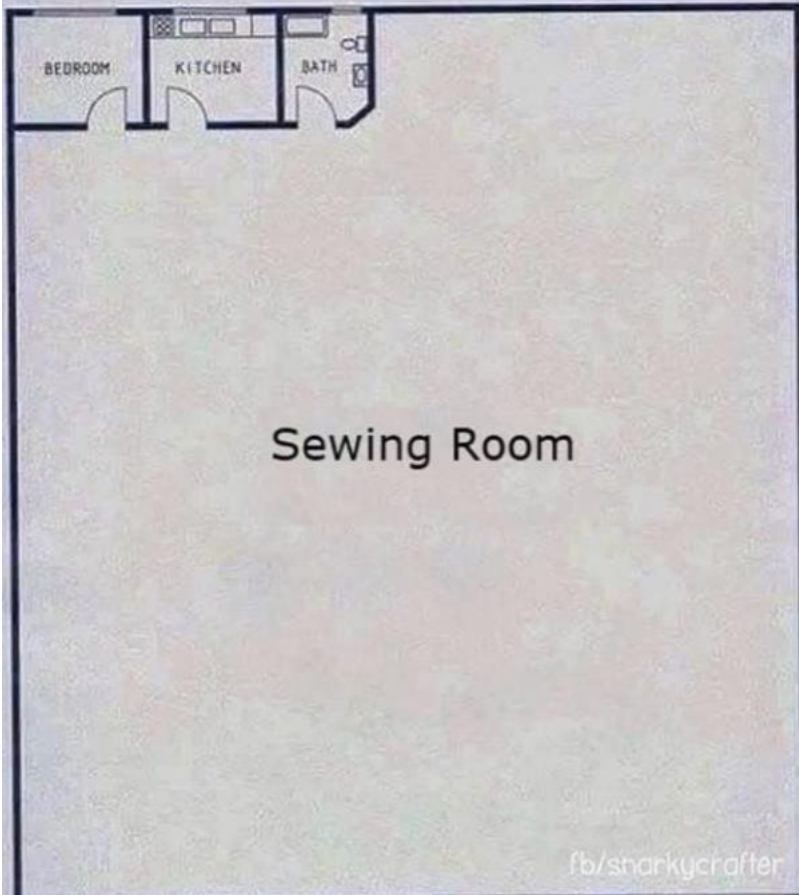

Another excellent Retreat.. looking forward to the spring of 2024 for the next one. Thank you Catriona for once again organizing our stay and the ladies for your great company. Cheers, Wendy R.

Can anyone figure this out. - Please tell.....Janet

How can this be?

Just came up with the floor plan
for my dream house

I have a 72" by 72" Free Standing Design Wall that I now know I will not be using again. In fact, I have only used it once - for the last Queen Quilt I made 8 or more years ago now.

I wondered if there was any one in the Guild who still may not have one, and would like one. I know lots have it.

It sells on Amazon for $245 - I'd be happy to pass it along for $75, or Best Offer.

And, I'd throw in a wooden Quilt Ruler holder - that I also will not be using (I have 2)

I thought this was worth an email - as otherwise it will just sit, hidden away somewhere here - unused- which seems a shame.

Perhaps you could pass the info along

Thanks Kathy,
